Scotch Doubles

Don't miss this GREAT open bonspiel.

March 30th and 31st, 2019

We play doubles a bit differently and it's a lot of fun! Two players (male or female) throw three rocks each for six ends. There's no sweeping between the hog lines and two rocks are set before each end starts. The team throwing first is given a center guard between the hog and the top of the house and the hammer team gets a rock at the back of the button. There are always lots of rocks in play and it's a super format for both novice and experienced curlers.
